ROMEO & JULIET CAST

It was lovely to see some new faces and well as some well-known (I hesitate to say 'old') faces for the Romeo and Juliet auditions, most of whom were cast as follows:

Romeo:	Sam Chamberlain
Juliet:	Jasmine Weyer-Brown
Friar Laurence:	David Bainger
Nurse:	Angela Healy
Capulet:	Gordon Mellor
Lady Capulet:	Maxine Harrington
The Prince:	Julian Head
Mercutio:	Amy Burton-Smith
Benvolio:	Josh Townsend
Tybalt:	Stephen Andrews
Paris:	Lewis Bird
Montague:	Richard Weare
Balthasar:	Mia Kenny

Thank you to everyone who came along to the reading and auditions and to Dave Renwick for being part of the audition panel.

We look forward to seeing you in February for a show that is shaping up to be a good strong production.

Margaret Long
Production Coordinator

TWANKEY TURNED THEM ON!

The Aladdin cast were delighted, despite the weather, to be part of Teignmouth's official Christmas Light Switch-On on, Saturday 24th November. The majority of the cast were present and did a great job of advertising the show. Not only did they appear on the main stage in The Triangle, performing excerpts from the production but they were also represented in the lantern parade.

At the request of Teignmouth Town Council, our very own Widow Twankey, Howie Watkins, performed the ceremonial switching-on of the lights in the town centre.

Cllr David Matthews, Chairman of the Christmas Lights Switch-on Working Group sent a personal note to thank Teignmouth Players for our "contribution in making this year's Teignmouth Christmas Lights Switch-on so successful."

Audition Notice "Nuts"

"Nuts" a brand new one-act play by Jef Pirie is to be TP's TADDFest 2019 entry.

Set in an up-market hotel room, but with some clever audio visual effects so that you can see what's going on in the corridor outside the room, Nigel, a company executive (aged between 30s and 60s) is accosted by two working women Marjorie and Katie (aged in their 30s/40s) who have retribution on their mind for past misdemeanours, but as always, nothing is quite as it seems! Particularly once a police inspector gets involved.

A fast-paced comedy with the hallmarks for a great festival entry. Auditions Monday, 10th December at 7:30 p.m. at The Ice Factory Studio Theatre. Open to everyone.

Reading & Audition Notice

The Allergic Audience

By Joan Greening

Directed By Dave Davies

Another one-act comedy to be performed in early March, requiring two females aged about 40 and 60.

Aspiring actress Pandora is resting at the moment (a permanent state for her), and has volunteered to run front of house in a small theatre where she encounters Barbara, the regular front of house manager. The show is 'At Home with Charlotte', a ghastly, historically inaccurate portrayal of Charlotte Bronte. Reading and auditions to be held on 14 January 7:30 p.m. The script can be read on-line at <http://www.lazybeescripts.co.uk/Scripts/Script.aspx?iSS=2737>

If The Labyrinth

By Jef Pirie

Saturday 22nd December

TP are proud to present a rehearsed reading of a new play by award-winning playwright Jef Pirie. If The Labyrinth... is a thought-provoking play based on two ancient myths, and like most good stories, it's basically about relationships. The evening will be recorded and will be the first step in exploring the potential for TP productions to be available in new media.

Jef is chuffed that some of the best actors in the area will be performing, including: Rebekah Hayden, David Warren, Stephen Andrews, Carrie McCray, Andrew Malcolm and Laraine Ferguson.

Sex, drugs, politics, jokes, actors showing off their versatility (32 different parts!) – and free mince pies! What's not to like?

If The Labyrinth will be performed as a rehearsed reading at The Ice Factory Studio Theatre for one night only on December 22nd at 7.30pm.
